Although there has been considerable progress in the field of education in Bangladesh over the last few decades, a major overhaul of the education system in Bangladesh is necessary to ensure quality higher education. Some of the major challenges facing the education system in Bangladesh to ensure quality education in higher education are adequate quality classrooms or infrastructural problems, lack of trained skilled teachers, learning-teaching environment, inadequacy of modern technology in education etc. The Corona Epidemic will undoubtedly make all these problems of higher education in Bangladesh more apparent. The College Education Development Project (CEDP) is working according to their work plan to address the problems mentioned by the colleges affiliated to the National University. Jhalokathi Government College is working according to its own action plan under CEDP project.

Despite the Corona epidemic situation, my college CEDP has continued its activities regularly. R

Although we continued online class at my college to keep students involved in their studies

, it was not possible to connect most of the students online as it was a marginal level college. Therefore, it has become a big challenge for us to cope with all these students the corona crisis and compensate them and bring them back to the classroom.

With the development of the existing Corona situation, the normal activities of the college will continue and I hope that in the days to come my college will play a role in ensuring quality education in the country.

Introduction : Jhalokathi Government College is located in Jhalokathi district headquarters. Jhalokathi has been known as a traditional trading center since ancient times. That is why Jhalokathi was once called Kolkata of Bengal. What is lacking in such a tradition. Some far-sighted young men went to look for the cause and saw that there was no opportunity for higher education. The establishment of Jhalokathi Government College was started from the thoughts of these young men. Dr. Zaman is a renowned physician from Jhalokathi. Under his leadership, some enthusiastic young men came forward. With their hard work and the cooperation of the local people, Jhalokathi Government College started its activities in 1964 with the slogan 'Education-Integrity-Service' at the abandoned residence of Bhu-Kailas Zamindar on the north bank of Sugandha river.

After the independence of Bangladesh in 1971, new enthusiasm for nation building spread all over the country. The college stopped all attempts at erosion of the Sugandha river at the beginning of its development. The foundation stone of the college was laid by the then Member of Parliament for Jhalakathi, Mr. Amir Hossain Amu, on a 13.5 acre land in a captivating environment along the Barisal-Pirojpur highway, which was shifted to the north of Jhalokathi town in 1972. The college was nationalized on March 1, 1980 and came to be known as Jhalokathi Government College. College activities were shifted from the old residence of the zamindar to the unfinished new building in 1981. After the declaration of Jhalokati district in 1984, a new building was constructed in the college. Work of two storied main academic building was completed in 1990. Since then, the principal's residence and dormitory built in 1993. In 1997, a two-storied science building and a two-storied academic building were constructed on the north side of the main building. Later a five storied honors building was constructed. A ten-storied academic building is currently under construction.

This traditional college is the main government educational institution of Jhalokati district and one of the best schools of Barisal division. A large number of students from other districts surrounding the college also came and were admitted in the college. The college offers honors courses in Bengali, political science, history, history and culture of Islam, philosophy, accounting, English and management in addition to the faculties of arts, commerce and science in the higher secondary and degree (pass) classes. Moreover, Masters courses in Political Science and Accounting are being introduced.

Chapter 5 :

Concluding Remarks

Since its establishment, Jhalokathi Government College has been providing quality education to the students of the district town and from the marginal level of the district. The most important and largest college in the district at the tertiary level is making a significant contribution to the higher education of the country. That can contribute to the Socio-economic development of the country by improving quality of college education fitting with national and international demands. But due to lack of infrastructure, shortage of teachers etc., it cannot ensure the desired quality teaching. To provide better resources for marginal students of Jhalokathi district and prepare them as skilled manpower the concerned authorities need to pay attention to the overall teaching environment, shortage of teachers, infrastructural development of Jhalokathi Government College, etc.

6.1 Overall Assessment of Performance of the last Year and Key targets for the next year

Teaching in Jhalokathi Government College was gradually improving after Covid-19 in the 2022-23 academic year. Jhalokathi Government College has continued all the activities and conducted classes as on routine. The overall performance of the college was good considering the regular communication with the higher authorities, maintaining regular interactions with the students by keeping the online platforms active, continuing the activities of CEDP, etc.

The main goal of the next academic year is to bring back the proper learning environment by associating the students with normal education activities after covid-19 situation. Appropriate utilization of allocated funds of CEDP for the development of the College. Ensuring quality teaching of students by integrating modern technology equipment. Arranging in-house training for professional development of teachers etc.

6.2 Key Challenges and Risks for the college

The biggest challenge for the college is to bring the students back to normal education as they are away from educational activities for a long time. Most of the students of Jhalokathi Government College are on the marginal label. Many students are likely to drop due to Covid-19 especially female students. Bringing all these students back to college will be also a challenge. Some political pressure is also still there.

6.3 Recommendations

Considering the demand of domestic and international job market, there is still considerable deficit in the tertiary education system of Bangladesh. Jhalokati Government College is no exception. Besides, it is very important to ensure quality education for the socio-economic development of the country, to meet the challenges of the 21st century and to take the country to the developed world by 2041. Therefore, infrastructural development, curriculum change, provision of modern technology teaching materials, elimination of teacher shortage, provision of adequate training of teachers, provision of scholarships for students should be made.
